If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, nothing will be impossible for you.

FIRST READING

Habakkuk 1:2-3, 2:2-4

How long, Lord, am I to cry for help while you will not listen; to cry 'Oppression!' in your ear and you will not save?

Why do you set injustice before me, why do you look on where there is tyranny?

Outrage and violence, this is all I see, all is contention, and discord flourishes.

Then the Lord answered and said,

'Write the vision down, inscribe it on tablets to be easily read, since this vision is for its own time only eager for its own fulfilment, it does not deceive; if it comes slowly, wait, for come it will, without fail. See how he flags, he whose soul is not at rights, but the upright man will live by his faithfulness.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 94:1-2, 6-9

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

SECOND READING

2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14

I am reminding you to fan into a flame the gift that God gave you when I laid my hands on you. God's gift was not a spirit of timidity, but the Spirit of power, and love, and self-control. So you are never to be ashamed of witnessing to the Lord, or ashamed of me for being his prisoner; but with me, bear the hardships for the sake of the Good News, relying on the power of God.

Keep as your pattern the sound teaching you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. You have been trusted to look after something precious; guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

1 Pet 1:25

Alleluia, alleluia!

The word of the Lord stands for ever: it is the word given to you, the Good News.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Luke 17:5-10

The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.' The Lord replied, 'Were your faith the size of a mustard seed you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea," and it would obey you.

'Which of you, with a servant ploughing or minding sheep, would say to him when he returned from the fields, "Come and have your meal immediately"?'

WHAT AUSTRALIAN CATHOLICS ARE SAYING ABOUT OUTREACH

In response to the Plenary Council consultation's question, What is God calling us to at this time? a number of people proposed ways to reach out to those not currently members of the Church, or not practising their faith. These ideas included:

- striving for greater acknowledgement of and connection with Aborigines and Torres Strait Islanders
- reaching out to non-practising Catholics to reawaken their faith again
- welcoming those who identify as Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual or Transgender as a witness to the all-encompassing love of God
- engaging more actively with people of whatever persuasion, whether non-Catholic Christians, people of other faiths or people of no faith
- actively seeking to reach young people and ensure the relevance of Church liturgies and practice to them.

You can find out more about what people said by viewing the Full Report of the Plenary Council online at <https://plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au/resources/reports>

Each week we will be summarising a different topic from the First Phase of the Plenary Consultation. We will then be organising groups for the Second Phase of consultation, the Listening and Discernment Phase. For more information contact Peter Laffan (impe@internode.on.net or 8556 3915) Peter Laffan

PLENARY COUNCIL CONSULTATION

There will be a meeting on Thursday 17 October at 7.00pm at Galilee

Community Room, Aldinga, to prepare for the next phase of consultation, Listening and Discernment, leading up to the Plenary Council in October next year.

This meeting will consider the findings of the First Phase, Listening and Dialogue, which you have seen over recent weeks in the Bulletin. In addition, we will also discuss how to involve as many parishioners as possible in the next stage. Whether you participated in the previous discussions or not, you will be very welcome to attend. For further information contact Peter Laffan (impe@internode.on.net or 8556 3915) Peter Laffan

WILLUNGA CHRISTMAS TREE FESTIVAL

The theme for this year's Christmas Tree Festival hosted by the Uniting Church in St Judes Street, Willunga is: 'Your Christmas Story'.

Janet Burbridge is taking on the organising of our entry again for this year and she would like to collect as many photos as possible of parishioners – past and present – individual or family groups – so that they can be hung on our tree. In the interests of Privacy Legislation the photos can be handed to Janet or to Sr Margaret Ann so we can identify the owner and return them after the Festival. Names will not be placed on the photos, which will be attached to the tree. Photos will need to be limited to 'head and shoulders' so that we can fit as many as possible on our tree.

Entries are due by 7 November. Thank you or your support of this community event.

PLEASE KEEP THESE PEOPLE IN YOUR PRAYERS

Sick: Val Gater, Bernie Wilkie, Abbey McIver, Veronica Shortland, Muriel Smith, Rose Sulda

Would he not be more likely to say, "Get my supper laid; make yourself tidy and wait on me while I eat and drink. You can eat and drink yourself afterwards"? Must he be grateful to the servant for doing what he was told? So with you: when you have done all you have been told to do, say, "We are merely servants: we have done no more than our duty."

HABAKKUK (FIRST READING)

Very little is known about the prophet Habakkuk. Even the meaning of his name is uncertain. From his writings some have deduced that he was a member, possibly a leader, of the temple choir. One might date his writings between the defeat of Neco by Nebuchadnezzar at Carchemish (605 BC) and the siege of Jerusalem (597 BC). This places Habakkuk shortly after Nahum and makes him a contemporary of Jeremiah.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING

In today's Gospel we hear Jesus teach about faith and service to God. The context is a continuing dialogue between Jesus and his followers about what it means to be a disciple of Jesus. Jesus has just finished an instruction on sin and forgiveness.

There are two related teachings that Jesus offers to his disciples when they cry out for an increase in faith. The first is the familiar reminder that faith, even just a little, will enable the followers of Jesus to do wondrous things. But this uplifting and inspiring teaching is quickly followed by the second teaching, a caution about knowing one's place in God's plans. The disciples of Jesus are to understand themselves as servants to God and his plans. Even when God works wonders through us, with our mustard seed-sized faith, we must not seek praise.

Our participation in God's plans is God's grace to us—nothing more, nothing less. When we are graced enough to cooperate with God, the work we do is nothing more than our obligation to God as faithful stewards. And yet, our faith enables us to believe that what we have offered in service to God, as his servants, can be made to produce a hundredfold. Loyola Press website

DID YOU KNOW?

- The mustard seed is one of the smallest of seeds. Even a little faith is able to achieve wondrous things.
- A mulberry tree has a complicated root system which makes it very difficult to move.
- In the New Testament period, servants were totally reliant on the master to provide everything they needed in return for their labour. Their status was really that of a slave.
- Jesus always presents the call to discipleship and belief as a call to service of others.
