FIRST READING

Job 38:1, 8-11

From the heart of the tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said:

Who pent up the sea behind closed doors when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb, when I wrapped it in a robe of mist and made black clouds its swaddling bands; when I marked the bounds it was not to cross and made it fast with a bolted gate?

Come thus far, I said, and no farther: here your proud waves shall break.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

SECOND READING

2 Corinthians 5:6-10

The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them.

From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know

Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! A great prophet has appeared among us; God has visited his people. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 4:35-41

With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross over to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened?'

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

The Lord is the strength of his people, a saving refuge for the one he has anointed. Save your people, Lord, and bless your heritage, and govern them for ever.

ST PETER'S CELEBRATION MASS

Father Josy will say Mass on Friday 28 June at 5.30pm at St Peters, Normanville (in lieu of the usual 12.00noon Friday Mass). This is to celebrate St Peter's Feast day, which is on 29 June. After Mass there will be a shared meal in the Annie O'Connor Centre. Visitors from the wider parish are most welcome. Nigel Pile

SAFEGUARDING OUR CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

All children have the right to food, clothing, a safe place to live and to have their basic needs met.

Though we live in a developed country, there are still children who do not enjoy these rights. Children are disadvantaged and live in poverty for various reasons. Many children do not have the food, shelter or clothing they need for survival. Our Catholic charities and agencies, both here and overseas, strive to help children and families to ensure that they receive what they need to be healthy and participate fully in society. As God gives so abundantly to us his love and forgiveness, let us give, through prayer, time or money, whatever we can to help children in need. Child

MINI-VINNIES UPDATE

Our Mini-Vinnies group at Cardijn College, Galilee campus is a thriving social justice group who use the ‘See, Judge, Act’ to learn about problems in our local community and take action to help.

So far some of the exciting things we have been doing have been:

- Cooking for the local Fred’s Van
- Baking ANZAC biscuits to give out at the ANZAC service at the War Memorial, Aldinga

- Cake stall at the Aldinga Family Mass on Saturday 18 May, raising $234 for Vinnies!
- School clean up for Laudato Si Week
- We are holding a Vinnies Winter Sleep Out this weekend to raise awareness for people experiencing homelessness.
- We are currently running a can drive, inviting families to send in a can of food and make the Mini-Vinnies symbol out of cans and food, to donate to the St Vincent de Paul pantry.

The students are very passionate about taking action to help people in our community and we thank you for your ongoing support.

MESSAGE FROM POPE FRANCIS

Keep your homilies short or people will fall asleep: Pope Francis has once again appealed to priests to keep their homilies short, this time warning that homilies should be no longer than eight minutes or “people will fall asleep”.

DID YOU KNOW?

- 'The other side' refers to the eastern shore of the Sea of Galilee, This was known as pagan territory, the region of the Decapolis or the 'Ten cities', which were not part of the traditional lands of Israel.
- The Sea of Galilee was (and still is) notorious for storms which could blow up very quickly and be tempestuous.
- In Genesis 1, God brought order to the watery chaos at creation purely through his command. Here, Jesus does the same simply by verbal command.
- In Mark's gospel, the disciples are often portrayed as missing the point and failing to recognise who Jesus is!

How is it that you have no faith?
They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be?
Even the wind and the sea obey him.'

GOD UNLIMITED

(Mark 4: 35 - 41)

Awake now, Jesus told the wind to pipe down and he said to the sea, "Quiet! Settle down!" The wind ran out of breath; the sea became smooth as glass. Jesus reprimanded the disciples, "Why are you such cowards? Don't you have any faith at all?" They were in absolute awe, staggered. "Who is this, anyway?" they asked. "Wind and sea at his beck and call!" (Mark 4:39-41)

Some scholars are fishermen, but it doesn't follow that all fishermen are scholars. Certainly, the guys who followed Jesus since Galilee didn't betray hours of brilliant learning. If they'd studied Scripture much, they might have recognised in Jesus' absolute control of the waters the divine authority displayed in the Old Testament. God sets limits on the waters in Genesis, and ever after the waters are under heavenly control. Think Noah and the ark, Moses and the Red Sea, Elijah and the long famine without rain, Job and the Voice from the Whirlwind, Jonah and the great fish, to name a few. Only God can wield power over the forces of chaos represented by water. If Jesus could do it too, then logic would suggest that Jesus had a special relationship to God.

But we can't really blame the first disciples for not recognising the power of God when they were up to their necks in it. How often do astonishing events come into our lives, and we just say, "What luck!" or "How talented I am!" never acknowledging the true source of grace.

GIVE YOURSELF A TIME OUT

(Mark 4:35-41)

When she was a small child, my niece had a meltdown one day in the middle of the ornate foyer of her paediatrician's office in the city. She did not want to leave, but she didn't want to stay. She had entered the dreaded toddler contrarian mode that no amount of cajoling can deactivate. Her legs collapsed and she lay prostrate on the rich marble floor being traversed by beautifully clad businesspeople who stared at us with withering "can't you please control that child" looks.

At our wits' end, we dragged my precious darling niece across the foyer and out the door, where we lifted her kicking and screaming and put her into the car. Her Mum and Dad then let out a torrent of words that included phrases like "never so embarrassed," "big trouble," "no TV," "time out." Before their tirade was complete they looked into the rearview mirror and saw that my niece had fallen asleep. "Good God," we thought, "she was just tired. Why didn't we see that? Why didn't we handle the situation better?"

The words from Psalm 46 came to mind: "Be still and know that I am God," which are reminiscent of Jesus' command to the wind and sea in this week's gospel: "Quiet and still." I sat still for a long time, just listening to my niece's steady breathing. I realised I was the one who was in big trouble and in need of time out. I wish the inspiration had come sooner. Maybe next time it will. GPBS eNews
